

Martini on Ice

Rich McDonough

BASED ON A TRUE STORY

Martini on Ice

Rich McDonough
PRIVATE DETECTIVE

About the Book:

How would you interpret a dead man in your freezer, with a .38 caliber slug planted smack between the eyes to police? If it was murder, who did it, if it was suicide, then he would have to be a magician. How about a professional hit?

CONMAN - Perry Martini. Word on the street, he was Iced because of the IRS threats to convict him on multiple counts of bribery, kick backs payoffs, and money laundering. Surrounding the shady underworlds of construction corruption.

Perry Martini, a successful land developer, investor and entrepreneur. In exchange for immunity, who was due to testify before a federal grand jury, that would cause a major upheaval with the high up political silent partners of Martini's lucrative land oil lease scheme. Which had raked in millions, undeclared and tax free, just days of his sudden and very abrupt death.

Enter Mac Shamus, PI, who is hired by Ben Gibson, a law partner of Mac's, ex-homicide buddy Lt. Jack Dumphy, at the Cincinnati police. Now, also a high priced defense attorney in the same firm. To help clear their client B.J. Alton, charged with Aggravated murder.
